1.11.-4.11.2017

CHURCH FILM PRIZE OF THE INTERFILM JURY

The INTERFILM Jury awards the Church Film Prize of 5000.- €, donated by the Evangelical Church Luebeck-Lauenburg, to Verdwijnen (Disappearance)

directed by Boudewijn Koole (Netherlands, Norway, 2017)

Motivation: In search of a reconciliation with her mother, a photo-journalist returns to Norway's sparse mountain regions. With the help of her younger half-brother, the two women gradually overcome their inability to speak to each other. The director uses arresting images and sound to confront the audience with existential questions. (Photo: © Pluto Film)

The Jury awards in addition a Commendation to

Rett vest (Going West)

directed by Henrik Martin Dahlsbakken (Norway, 2017)

Motivation: This Norwegian road movie approaches its characters with a persuasive affection and dignity. The film invites the viewer to a nonjudgemental look at human diversity. (Photo: © FilmBros)
